Grammar: Subject-verb agreement

Subjects and verbs MUST agree in NUMBER. Singular subjects use verbs with singular endings (e.g. the dog barks; the teacher says). Plural subjects use verbs with plural endings (e.g. the dogs bark; the teachers say). The verb usually follows immediately after the subject; however, extra care should be taken in the following cases:

1. Subject and verb are separated
2. Subject has two or more parts (compound subject)
3. Subject comes after the verb
4. Subject is connected by 'or', 'nor', 'either . . . or', 'neither . . . nor' words
5. Subject is a special type of pronoun
6. Subject is a collective noun or non-count noun

GRAMMAR CHECKERS will TRY to help you with subject-verb agreement, BUT it is a hit-or-miss hint (i.e. makes mistakes or misses errors you make). You need to know all of the rules for subject-verb agreement and check your sentences as you write and when you proofread your work.

1. Subject and verb are separated

Sometimes, the subject of the sentence is separated from the verb by a word group. You need to find the verb and ask 'who' or 'what' is doing the action. The noun closest to the verb can sometimes look like the subject, but it's not.

Examples

 ✓ Heavy snow, together with high winds, makes skiing conditions dangerous.

 ✓ The weather in mountainous regions is treacherous during the winter.

 ✓ Storms, which occur during winter, cause deep snow drifts.

2. Subject has two or more parts (compound subject)

If the subject is joined by 'and', use a plural verb.

Examples

 ✓ Silver, gold and other metals are mined in Western Australia.

 ✓ The miner and the union official agree on pay conditions.

3. Subject comes after the verb

The same rules apply when the subject follows the verb, especially when the sentence starts with 'there' or 'here'.

Examples

 ✓ There is a campsite in the national park.

 ✓ Here are the national park camping facilities.
4. Subject is connected by 'or', 'nor', 'either . . . or', 'neither . . . nor' words

4.1 If singular subjects are joined by 'or', 'nor', 'either . . . or', 'neither . . . nor', use a singular verb.

Example

✓ Neither the woman nor the child >>> out of danger.
   COMBINED SINGULAR SUBJECT SINGULAR VERB

4.2 If plural subjects are joined by 'or', 'nor', 'either . . . or', 'neither . . . nor', use a plural verb.

Example

✓ Neither the women nor the children >>> are out of danger.
   COMBINED PLURAL SUBJECT PLURAL VERB

4.3 If one subject is singular and one is plural, the verb agrees with the subject nearest to it.

Examples

✓ Neither the women nor the child >>> is out of danger.
   MIX OF SINGULAR & PLURAL SUBJECT SINGULAR VERB

✓ Neither the woman nor the children >>> are out of danger.
   MIX OF SINGULAR & PLURAL SUBJECT PLURAL VERB

5. Subject is a special type of pronoun

5.1 When you use the pronouns 'each', 'either', 'neither', 'another', 'anyone', 'anybody', 'anything', 'someone', 'somebody', 'something', 'one', 'everyone', 'everybody', 'everything', 'no one', 'nobody', 'nothing', use a singular verb.

Example

✓ Everyone in the group >>> has a job to do.
   SINGULAR SUBJECT SINGULAR VERB

5.2 When you use the pronouns 'both', 'many', 'few', 'several', 'other', use a plural verb.

Example

✓ Many of the people in the group >>> work consistently.
   PLURAL SUBJECT PLURAL VERB

5.3 Words like 'none', 'any', 'all', 'more', 'most', 'some' use singular or plural verbs, depending on the context.

Examples

✓ All of the cake was eaten by the children. (singular)
✓ All of the cakes were eaten by the children. (plural

6. Subject is a collective noun or non-count noun

6.1 A collective noun is a word used to refer to a group of people/things (e.g., team, committee, family, crowd, audience, government). If the noun is considered as a single unit, use a singular verb.

Example

✓ The government of the day >>> was responsible for regulating petrol prices.
   COLLECTIVE NOUN/SINGULAR SUBJECT SINGULAR VERB

6.2 A non-count noun (e.g. statistics, furniture, sugar, water, news) uses a singular verb.

Example

✓ Statistics, for most students, >>> is a difficult subject.
   NON-COUNT/SINGULAR SUBJECT SINGULAR VERB
